

1 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
2 EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

FILED
CLERK

11/20/2015

U.S. DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK
LONG ISLAND OFFICE

3 -----X
4 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, :
5 Plaintiff, : 14-CV-02317 (ADS)
6 v. :
7 THE TOWN OF OYSTER BAY. et al, : October 30, 2015
8 Defendants. : Central Islip, New York
9 -----X

10 TRANSCRIPT OF CIVIL CAUSE FOR STATUS CONFERENCE
11 BEFORE THE HONORABLE STEVEN I. LOCKE
12 UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

13 APPEARANCES:

14 For the Plaintiff: MICHAEL J. GOLDBERGER, ESQ.
15 SEAN GREENE, ESQ.
16 United States Attorneys Office
271 Cadman Plaza East
17 Brooklyn, New York 11201

18 For the Defendants: CHRISTIAN J. PISTILLI, ESQ.
19 Covington & Burling LLP
1201 Pennsylvania Avenue NW
Washington, DC 20016

20
21 Court Transcriber: MARY GRECO
22 TypeWrite Word Processing Service
23 211 N. Milton Road
24 Saratoga Springs, New York 12866
25

Proceedings recorded by electronic sound recording,
transcript produced by transcription service

1 (Proceedings began at 1:53 p.m.)

2 THE COURT: We are here for the parties' status
3 conference. Mr. Goldberger, where are we?

4 MR. GOLDBERGER: Your Honor, we are well underway
5 with discovery, well into discovery. We have exchanged
6 interrogatories and document requests a while ago. Responses
7 have been provided and the parties have clarified responses.
8 There's been a second set of requests served by the defendant
9 and we're about to do the same to get some clarification on the 10 interrogatory responses.

11 We have conducted four depositions so far. Those 12 depositions have made clear that we're going to need a 13 substantial number of additional depositions and we have 14 noticed those depositions to the other side to be conducted
15 between now the beginning of December. Your Honor, it is a
16 substantial number. As we had indicated earlier, we believe
17 that we need approximately 20 depositions in this case, and I'm 18 happy to explain that in detail to Your Honor. We have a list
19 of the people and the reasons why we need those depositions.

20 THE COURT: Before you do, let's see what the 21 defendant's position is on the extra depositions.

22 DEFENDANT'S ATTORNEY: We think they're entirely
23 unnecessary and we also think that the notices are procedurally
24 improper.

25 THE COURT: Okay.

1           DEFENDANT'S ATTORNEY: At the earlier status
2 conference Your Honor said it's limited to ten, Mr. Goldberger,
3 do your ten. If you need more, put in a motion. He hasn't 4 done that and he's noticed 20 depositions.

5           THE COURT: In that case we're going to need to move
6 forward. You can tell me about them.

7           MR. GOLDBERGER: Sure, Your Honor. If I may just 8 hand up a list it'll be easier I think to follow. I'll be able 9 to explain it.

10          THE COURT: Do you have a copy for your adversary?

11          MR. GOLDBERGER: I have a copy for counsel.

12          THE COURT: Sure. That's fine. Mr. Pistilli, do you
13 have a list?

14          MR. PISTILLI: Yes, I do.

15          THE COURT: All right. Let's continue, Mr.
16 Goldberger.

17          MR. GOLDBERGER: Okay. Your Honor, at issue in this 18 case are two separate government programs in the town of Oyster
19 Bay, one called Next Generation which is intended to benefit
20 young or first time home owner families. The second is the 21 Golden Age Program which was implemented to provide affordable
22 housing to senior citizens.

23                 One of the big questions in this case is the decision 24 making processes around the residency preferences that were 25 implemented in both cases. There's no single individual or

1 single entity that made that decision. It was a governmental
2 entity which made the decisions. The documents made quite 3 clear that there were a large number of people who were 4 involved in the decision making process. We started our 5 depositions with people we thought would have some of that 6 fundamental information. What we have learned that it is 7 fragmented, (A), and (B), the people we thought were sort of in 8 the leadership on this thing turn out to say that they have 9 limited knowledge, or in one case which I'll raise in a little 10 bit, hid behind the attorney-client privilege in trying to 11 avoid having, or at least not answering questions about that 12 decision making process.

13 THE COURT: Do the people who you describe as having 14 limited knowledge point to somebody else as having the driving
15 knowledge?

16 MR. GOLDBERGER: Well, yes. There does seem to be an 17 individual who had some of that driving knowledge. He was a 18 consultant to the town. His name is David Portman and he is 19 actually listed at the bottom of this list, Your Honor. We 20 have actually not noticed Mr. Portman's deposition yet and I'll 21 explain why. Mr. Portman, when this first started, Mr. Portman
22 was retired. We understood that he was no longer at the 23 company that he had been at. We ask counsel if they had a
24 contact information for Mr. Portman. It took at least a couple
25 of months before they finally got back to me and said Mr.

1 Portman is represented by counsel, a man named Charles
2 Goldberger, no relation. And Mr. Goldberger then -- I
3 contacted Mr. Goldberger and Mr. Goldberger said, "I've known
4 Mr. Portman for years, I've represented him for years. He 5 lives in Florida. He has Parkinson's so there's some 6 limitation on his ability to travel." I said, "We'll go to 7 Florida. That's fine." He said, "But I don't know that I'm 8 going to represent him. I think that Covington and Burling is 9 going to represent him." So we've been waiting to hear back
10 from Covington and Burling to find out whether he's represented
11 or whether we need to issue a subpoena or whether Mr.
12 Goldberger or someone else. But once I'm told that someone is 13 represented by counsel, obviously I cannot contact that person
14 directly. So we've been waiting on Mr. Portman --

15 THE COURT: We're going to find out right now. Do
16 you represent Mr. Portman?

17 MR. PISTILLI: As of yesterday we represent Mr.
18 Portman. We expect to have an engagement letter signed on 19 Monday.

20 THE COURT: Okay. So you'll respond. From now
21 you're on for Mr. Portman. Work with each other, figure it
22 out, location and everything else.

23 MR. GOLDBERGER: That's fine, Your Honor. We're 24 happy to go to Florida particularly now that the weather has 25 gotten cold.

1           The other individuals who are on our list are for the 2 Next Generation Program. We've taken the depositions of the 3 director and the commissioner and deputy commissioner at the 4 time of Community Planning and Development. They profess
5 limited knowledge and they're the ones who pointed to Mr.
6 Portman primarily.

7           The other individual who might have some knowledge is 8 the successor commissioner who is Jack Libert who's the next
9 person on our list.

10           THE COURT: You say that because that was what was 11 suggested in the initial depositions.

12           MR. GOLDBERGER: And by the documents, Your Honor.

13           THE COURT: Okay.

14           MR. GOLDBERGER: The next chunk are the people who 15 are the town council members. They are the people who vote.
16 The first person on the list is Anthony Mackinyone [Ph.]. Mr.
17 Mackinyone was the person who actually proposed the program to 18 begin with, who's the legislator who rode herd on that 19 legislation from what we understand. And certainly we're 20 trying to get an understanding of what the town intended with 21 this program and with this residency preference. They're not 22 going to be long depositions. I wouldn't even think they'd go
23 more than an hour or two. But they're depositions that we need
24 to take in order to get that information.

25           THE COURT: Okay. Let's take a break from that

1 there. Mr. Pistilli, why don't you tell me about Mr. Portman?
2 What's your objection to him being deposed?

3 MR. PISTILLI: I have no objection to Mr. Portman.

4 THE COURT: Okay. What about Mr. Libert? What's 5 your objection?

6 MR. PISTILLI: Mr. Libert is the successor
7 commissioner of the Department of Planning.

8 THE COURT: Right.

9 MR. PISTILLI: We indicated in our discovery
10 responses we didn't list anybody from the Department of 11 Planning because they have no material role in the facts
12 relevant to this case. The government nevertheless took the 13 deposition of the Commissioner and the Deputy Commissioner of 14 Planning who were in place at the time the Next Generation
15 legislation was passed.

16 THE COURT: Right.

17 MR. PISTILLI: They didn't know anything. They did
18 not point to Mr. Libert as someone who would know anything.

19 THE COURT: So we have a disagreement there.

20 MR. PISTILLI: Yes.

21 THE COURT: I mean you say he did point to him, Mr.
22 Libert --

23 MR. GOLDBERGER: Well, I think there was some 24 indication that Mr. Libert might have some knowledge about how 25 the program was created. Mr. Destefano, who had been the

1 commissioner I believe, transitioned out during the course of 2 the program.

3 THE COURT: Well right, but either he suggested Mr.
4 Libert had knowledge or he didn't suggest that.

5 MR. GOLDBERGER: Well, I'm not sure. I think he did,
6 first of all. I disagree. We do have a disagreement. But
7 more importantly, there are documents that have Mr. Libert's
8 name on it that discuss the program.

9 MR. PISTILLI: All those documents, Your Honor, post
10 date the enactment of the program. Remember --

11 THE COURT: Postdate the --

12 MR. PISTILLI: The enactment of the Next Gen Program.
13 So to the extent --

14 THE COURT: Well that doesn't -- why is that 15 dispositive?

16 MR. PISTILLI: Well, the principle thing that Mr.
17 Goldberger has been attempting to establish so far
18 unsuccessfully in the depositions is that the program was 19 enacted with a discriminatory intent. This is the man who took 20 over after the program was enacted. His department oversaw a
21 contract that had administered the program but I hardly see why
22 that makes it necessary to take the third deposition of someone 23 from that department especially when the deputy in place during 24 both Mr. Destefano and Mr. Libert's tenure who had principle
25 responsibility has already been deposed.

1           THE COURT: The question is whether or not he'd have
2 relevant information going to the case. He's not a -- is he a
3 defendant?

4           MR. GOLDBERGER: He's not a defendant.

5           THE COURT: Well then I don't think that that's the 6 standard, is it?

7           MR. PISTILLI: So it is not the case that a party is 8 entitled to a deposition of someone merely because they have 9 relevant information. There is a limit of ten depositions in 10 place and it's Mr. Goldberger's obligation to establish good
11 cause to exceed that limit. If he wants to use one of his ten
12 on Mr. Libert, you know, we wouldn't be seeking a protective 13 order. But I think cumulatively the 21 are likely to prove to 14 be cumulative and of extraordinary little probative value in 15 the case. So I don't think the real question here is whether 16 any single deponent is appropriate. The question is whether 17 he's established good cause to get more than double what Your 18 Honor ordered.

19           THE COURT: Well then that's significant. So the 20 undercurrent of the defendant's objections is the fact that ten 21 are exhausted and there isn't good cause to go to 11. Is that 22 fair to say?

23           MR. PISTILLI: The ten aren't even anywhere nearly 24 exhausted yet. Contrary to Your Honor's order he's only taken
25 four. If he takes his ten and says he needs more and puts in a

1 motion as Your Honor ordered, then we can have that fight. As 2 of now it's totally premature to say he needs to double the 3 number that were ordered at the last status conference.

4 THE COURT: Okay. So is that fair to say you've
5 taken four so far and you're looking down the road and figuring
6 like this is going to be way more than ten?

7 MR. GOLDBERGER: Right, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: Okay.

9 MR. GOLDBERGER: And I think the other fact of the 10 matter is that we have a discovery cutoff that we need to try 11 to meet and that it's certainly relevant to us to take the 12 depositions of everyone who might have knowledge. And the fact
13 that someone has implementation responsibility for the Next
14 Generation Program rather than creation responsibility doesn't
15 mean (A), that they didn't have responsibility for other things
16 that might be relevant to the program is discriminatory --

17 THE COURT: Well, he's already essentially said I'm 18 not objecting on the basis of relevance.

19 MR. GOLDBERGER: Right. Okay. Right.

20 THE COURT: So it's just a question of number. It
21 seems to me now that I understand this a little better that 22 you've got six more depositions no matter what. Assume that 23 you would get an extension of discovery deadline, all right?
24 So that perhaps we can attack this in waves.

25 MR. GOLDBERGER: Okay.

1           THE COURT: If you were to take the next six and
2 they'll reveal some information of some kind and then you say I
3 need more of the following subset of people on this list, we
4 can talk about it then. And what I'm going to ask is why don't 5 you tell me how long you need to get those depositions and 6 we'll set it down for a status conference and then hopefully
7 you'll attend the status conference with a -- we'll have a more
8 fleshed out plan in terms of here's where we are, here's how 9 I'd like the roadmap to go forward. Mr. Pistilli, you'll say I
10 don't like that roadmap and here's why. And then we'll do it
11 then.

12           MR. GOLDBERGER: Fair enough, Your Honor. I think we 13 can get the six depositions done in the next month, Your Honor.
14 I don't think that's going to be much of a problem.

15           THE COURT: So we'll have you back in call it a 16 little over 30 days. Mr. Pistilli, you around?

17           MR. PISTILLI: Yes, yes. I would think just for the 18 Court's convenience.

19           THE COURT: Sure.

20           MR. PISTILLI: And the problem is we've had these 21
21 notices outstanding. We thought that was a crazy number. And 22 so once we know who the actual six are, we need to talk to them
23 and discuss availability. The holidays are approaching. I'm 24 going to try to get them done in the next 30 days. I don't
25 think that's unreasonable. But I would hate to have a status

1 set and have us for whatever reason not have --

2 THE COURT: Look, I can give you a status date and 3 you can say we've got three and three guys are out of town for 4 the holidays, can we do it in --

5 MR. PISTILLI: Okay. I just --

6 THE COURT: Don't be overly concerned about that kind
7 of stuff with me.

8 MR. PISTILLI: Okay.

9 THE COURT: That won't be a problem. I'll give you
10 more than 30 days though just to accommodate them. Let's see.
11 We're at October 30th. Why don't we say the week of December 12 14th for a status conference?

13 MR. GOLDBERGER: That sounds great, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: So that's -- you need a little extra
15 wiggle room. If we need to adjourn it to January, you'll let 16 me know. Try to give me a couple of dates you're available
17 because I have a few trials in January and I'm going to try to 18 slot you in as best we can. The week of the 14th.

19 THE CLERK: December 15th.

20 THE COURT: December 15th at --

21 MR. GOLDBERGER: Your Honor, if we could push it to 22 the latter part of that week? I'm going to be out the week
23 before into that week.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. GOLDBERGER: So if it's possible to do it like

1 Thursday or Friday of that week it would be terrific.

2 THE COURT: Sure. How about Friday the 7 --

3 THE CLERK: 18th.

4 THE COURT: Friday the 18th at?

5 THE CLERK: 10 a.m.

6 THE COURT: 10 a.m. All right. So the docket is 7 just going to state that there was a status conference. We'll
8 come back then. You'll have as much time as you can. If you
9 need a little more time for the holidays, just write a joint 10 letter.

11 MR. GOLDBERGER: Great.

12 MR. PISTILLI: Yes.

13 MR. GOLDBERGER: Great. Thank you, Your Honor.

14 THE COURT: Is that the only outstanding issue
15 basically the depositions?

16 MR. GOLDBERGER: That was I think the key issue, Your 17 Honor. There are some other things that we want to do that Mr.
18 Pistilli and I discussed that we did want to flag for the 19 Court.

20 THE COURT: Go ahead.

21 MR. GOLDBERGER: There are some issues concerning
22 attorney-client privilege that have been raised. In the course
23 of my asking one of the consultants to the town who we thought
24 was fairly key about his knowledge and about what was 25 discussed, not what was discussed so much as what his knowledge

1 was of the Fair Housing Act, of discrimination, and what was 2 considered, the response was I don't know anything other than 3 what my counsel told me, and therefore was essentially saying
4 that -- invoking the attorney-client privilege. That came up
5 several times during the course of his deposition. That's 6 something that we're willing to put in abeyance now and not 7 raise before Your Honor yet until we get further down in 8 discovery and see where things stand and whether we can get
9 around that issue with other questions of individuals. But it
10 may be an issue at some point.

11           There's also the issue of possibly having to take the 12 deposition of attorneys who represented the town to get at what 13 they did know and what they didn't know.

14           THE COURT: Okay. Well, we'll deal with that. To 15 the degree it requires motion practice, maybe we can tee that 16 up in the next conference and I'll give you the schedule to 17 submit either letter motions. If this looks like it needs to 18 be briefed, that's fine. Just let me know and we'll 19 essentially give you a more full blown --

20           MR. GOLDBERGER: Sure.

21           MR. PISTILLI: I would think it would need to be 22 briefed.

23           THE COURT: It may. So we'll do it. All right? Mr.
24 Pistilli, anything else?

25           MR. PISTILLI: Yes. There was one issue we wanted to

1 raise which was the location of depositions. Each of the 2 outstanding 16 notices, and I think it's going to be winnowed
3 down to six notices in Brooklyn and Mr. Goldberger's office is 4 the location of the depositions.

5 THE COURT: Okay.

6 MR. PISTILLI: We believe that the Town of Oyster Bay
7 as the headquarters of the municipal corporation is the 8 appropriate location for the depositions. I'm happy to put in 9 a letter motion to Your Honor if you prefer, but it seems like 10 --

11 THE COURT: Well Mr. Goldberger, what about it? In 12 the case of municipalities there is some case law suggesting
13 that you've got to go to the municipality.

14 MR. GOLDBERGER: There is, Your Honor, and I think
15 what we have said to counsel is that we're flexible. The first 16 two depositions were of consultants. I took one out here, one
17 up in White Plains in the White Plains courthouse as a matter
18 of fact. What I've said to counsel is that we prefer to take 19 the depositions in Brooklyn where I happen to have my main
20 office. Obviously I work out here as well.

21 THE COURT: Right.

22 MR. GOLDBERGER: I'm happy -- and if counsel has a
23 particular reason why a particular person needs to travel out
24 here rather than into Brooklyn, we can certainly work that out.
25 I'm flexible and I'm certainly cognizant of different people's

1 needs. Obviously in the case of Mr. Portman we will go to 2 Florida.

3           However, the way it started was counsel refused to 4 produce anybody in our office initially and insisted on it
5 being done either here or in Town's offices. The Town of 6 Oyster Bay headquarters is actually equidistant between the two 7 courthouses.

8           THE COURT: Is actually --

9           MR. GOLDBERGER: Equidistant between the two 10 courthouses. So while there may be a preference on the part of 11 that particular witness, and we certainly wouldn't want to 12 disrupt the -- and I think the case law you're referring to,
13 Your Honor, talks about disruption to the town's activities and 14 conduct --

15           THE COURT: Correct, and typically with law
16 enforcement.

17           MR. GOLDBERGER: Right. You know, that's not -- I
18 don't think that's the case in this circumstance and certainly 19 given the amount of time that's going to be involved in some of 20 these depositions, if we're talking about taking the council
21 members' depositions all in one day or in two days, that's 22 something where we might be able to do that out there, the 23 least inconvenience and do everything condensed. But I think
24 that there are other circumstances where we do have the right
25 to take the deposition -- the presumption is the deposition is

1 going to be held where the deposition is noticed. This is
2 still in the Eastern District of New York. And as I said,
3 we're willing to be flexible but I think counsel has to be 4 reasonable.

5 MR. PISTILLI: Well --

6 THE COURT: Go ahead. Sorry.

7 MR. PISTILLI: Oh, just two things.

8 THE COURT: Go ahead.

9 MR. PISTILLI: First on the refusal to produce
10 witnesses in Brooklyn. There's only one witness we refused to 11 produce in Brooklyn which is a third party who lives in a
12 different judicial district and we said it's got to happen
13 there. We think that was appropriate and in fact Mr.
14 Goldberger agreed I think, suggested that's right.

15 THE COURT: Well, the --

16 MR. PISTILLI: Everyone else he's essentially said to 17 us the burden is on us to show him why these witnesses are 18 unable to travel to Brooklyn. We just don't think that's the 19 law. We don't think -- you know, a corporation is to be 20 deposed presumptively at its headquarters which in this case
21 would be the Town of Oyster Bay. And I point Your Honor --

22 THE COURT: Is it its headquarters or is it within 23 the judicial district where its headquarters sit?

24 MR. PISTILLI: There's a presumption for corporations
25 including municipal corporations to be deposed at their

1 headquarters. We can point you to --

2 THE COURT: Don't point me now because I'm not going
3 to give you a ruling now so it's not going to help you. Work
4 out what you can. If not, that one you can do with three-page
5 letters. I'll take a look. Cite your cases. I'll look at the 6 cases. I'm always willing to learn new stuff. And we'll go
7 from there. But that one you should be able to do toot sweet.
8 I'd like you to whittle it down to as few a number as you can
9 and we'll go from there. Otherwise let's plan to see each
10 other in six weeks.

11 MR. GOLDBERGER: Sounds good, Judge. Judge, one
12 other thing I just wanted to alert --

13 THE COURT: Oh yes. Sorry.

14 MR. GOLDBERGER: -- the Court to. That's okay.
15 There's one other thing I want to alert the Court to, and Mr.
16 Pistilli is aware of this. We have been informed that there is 17 another lawsuit coming from the state on this very subject.
18 It's going to be filed in state court and the --

19 THE COURT: From the AG?

20 MR. GOLDBERGER: By the AG. No, by the Division of 21 Human Rights. So the ramifications of that, we're not quite 22 sure what it'll be yet. We suggested perhaps to counsel that 23 that might be a good time to talk settlement over we have heard
24 nothing back in that regard.

25 THE COURT: Okay. Mr. Pistilli, you'll evaluate as

1 it comes and assuming you're counsel on that lawsuit too, we're
2 open to assisting and if there's a chance to settle everything
3 at once here, I am open to that even though we don't have 4 jurisdiction over all of it. I think a global settlement is 5 always better. Let me know. All right. Anything else?

6 MR. GOLDBERGER: Nothing, Your Honor.

7 MR. PISTILLI: Nothing, Your Honor.

8 THE COURT: All right. Thank you all.

9 MR. GOLDBERGER: Thank you very much, Your Honor.

10 THE COURT: We are concluded.

11 (Proceedings concluded at 2:11 p.m.)

12 * * * * *

13

14

15

16

17

18

19

20

21

22

23

24

25

1 I certify that the foregoing is a court transcript from an
2 electronic sound recording of the proceedings in the above-
3 entitled matter.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Mary Greco", written in a cursive style.

---

Mary Greco

7 Dated: November 20, 2015